

Pet Protection Plans in an Emergency

With the world experiencing more natural disasters than ever, it is necessary to develop emergency plans for your household and family. If you are a pet owner, this also means including your pets in your emergency plans. Often times, during events such as hurricanes, pet owners leave their pets behind, thinking they will be able to survive on their own. The truth is however that a domestic pet cannot survive these events on their own. They will either flee their homes or perish. Therefore, as a responsible pet owner, you must take action and prepare for your pet as well as your family. To get your pet prepared, you can start by making sure your pet's identification tag is up to date. Include cell phone numbers or other numbers of places you may flee to during a disaster. You should always make your pet wear his or her tag. It could be the only thing that reunites you with your pet if a separation occurs during the disaster. You should also have an updated photo of your pet that will help you to identify him or her if needed.

Always be sure to have a leash or harness handy as well. You may not have a great deal of time to pack for your pet. So, if you already have these items handy, you can grab them and be out the door within seconds. Keeping an extra stash of dog food in the trunk of your car is also a good idea during disaster seasons. The less you need to pull together when a warning hits, the quicker you can get out of harms way.

If you know you would need a hotel room if disaster were to strike, then you should prepare ahead of time to do so. Obviously, you won't always be able to make reservations, as disaster can strike immediately with no warning. You can however keep a list of hotels that will allow pets and their phone numbers. This will help you save time and possibly snag a great room. If you cannot find a shelter that will allow you to bring your pets, consider contacting local boarding houses or relatives to find your pet a safe and temporary place to stay.

If you are a cat owner, be sure to remember the litter pan and litter. A cat will not likely go to the bathroom anywhere else, especially if it is an indoor only pet. You will want to be as prepared as possible. When disaster strikes, there may not be an operable store open to purchase these things. Also, don't forget to bring along any medications your pet may need. If you wait until the last possible moment to evacuate an area, it is unlikely you will be able to bring your pets along. If emergency officials are helping you out of the area, you will have to leave them behind. So, be sure that if you can any chance to evacuate early you do so. This will save you and your pet trauma and stress in the long run.

Hurricane Rescue Story for animal-lovers

The story begins with the rescuers finding this poor little guy they named Ralphie that someone had already taken under their wing but weren't equipped to adopt;

Ralphie, scared and nearly starved - joined the rescuers ...

You wouldn't think anything could live thru this... but look what Ralphie found.

This little lady had survived that wreckage .

here she is just placed in the car - scared, but safe :)

but no longer alone!

Instant friends, they comforted each other in the car

Then we added two more beagles that we found .. the more the merrier. But what about this next find?

Uh oh - a new survivor is added to the mix...
- There is no way this is going to work.

It's like everyone knows what the other has gone through.
- I think everything is going to be just fine, thank you!

Maybe there is hope for us all. Life really is good!

Hope this brings a little sunshine to your day .

Pet Essentials - What You Need to Pack in Case of Evacuation

Pets who are left behind rarely survive. So, be sure to prepare for your pet to come anytime you must leave your home due to disaster. Use this list of supplies you will need to pack in case of evacuation. These important pet essentials will help you and your pet have a safe and calm evacuation. You can always have a little bag prepared to grab and go with these items in it.

Food & Water

Obviously the most important things for your family and your pets are food and water. These are essential to survival and should always be brought along when you evacuate. You can keep a little bowl in your pet evacuation bag. You can add a bottle of water and a small bag of food in the sack as well. This will keep you from running around trying to collect food and water when you are told to evacuate.

Can Opener

If your pet can eat dry food you should rely mostly on it to get through. Dry food travels much better than wet food. However, if you must bring along wet food, don't forget to bring a can opener as well. Your pet will be a hungry one if you forget to bring the utensils needed to open the food!

Leash or Harness

As always, when you bring your pet along during an evacuation, you will need to bring along a leash or a harness. Most dog owners have these items very handy, but cat owners may not think about needing one. However, if you want your pet to be as safe as possible, you should be sure all animals have a proper leash. Even if you plan on holding the pet while traveling, a leash would give extra protection if the pet tries to escape.

Medications

With today's pets being on more medications than ever, it is likely you have a pet that takes daily meds. If your pet does need medication, don't forget to bring it along. This will help your pet stay on his or her normal routine and will prevent any pet medical emergencies from occurring. Think about putting a few in the grab and go bag so that you will at least have a few handy if you forget the entire bottle. You can always call a local vet in the area in which you are staying for more.

Bedding

Making sure your pet is as comfortable as possible is part of your responsibility. This being true, you should make sure to bring proper bedding for your pet. If your pet has a special blanket they love to snuggle up on, try to remember to bring it along. The more like home you can make their trip, the better they will behave. In turn, the better they behave, the easier your trip will be.

Litter

If you are a cat owner, then you certainly don't want to forget a stash of litter and a small litter pan. Cats are particular about where they use the potty, so you will need to bring these things along. They will not like to be walk on leashes at rest areas, much like dogs may.

List of Important Contact Numbers

To make your trip a little easier, prepare a list in advance of important pet numbers you may need. Make notes of which hotels in your state will allow pets and list their numbers. This way you can call while on the road to get reservations. Having a handy list with all of this information will save you time.

I hope you enjoyed this sweet story about animal rescues and co-operation between everyone!

DOG CARE self help for your pet's wellbeing

"Enjoyable Activities with Your Dog"

A dog is more than just a pet. It is a friend one can always count on when things go wrong and no one seems to care. Having a dog for a pet is not just about feeding it and giving it a good home.

"Need A Little Help With Your Health? Get A Dog!"

Dogs are considered man's best friend. But did you know that having a dog gives you several health benefits? In studies done by medical professionals, dog owners benefit from their pet's presence in several ways:

"Overview of Different Breeds of Dogs"

There are over a hundred registered breeds of dogs. Recognizing the type of dog is basically associated with its breed. A purebred animal belongs to a documented and acknowledged group of unmixed lineage.

"Obedience Training for Your Dog"

We've all encountered them at some point. Ill-mannered dogs. We've even seen their owners yelling at them, tugging at their leashes trying to make them behave.

"How to Housebreak Your Puppy"

Housebreaking is the most indispensable thing your puppy must learn. Common sense should tell you why. Do you want your house to stay spic and span? Handle your puppy's housebreaking well. Aside from the maintenance of your household hygiene, trained dogs are happy dogs. As creatures of habit, it's in their nature to keep schedules as pack animals.

"Does your pet dog suffer from heartworms?"

Dog heartworm is a common disease among canines in the United States. Discovered in 1856, the worms mainly live in your dog's heart and major blood vessels.

"Adopting A Dog - Puppy Or Adult"

Everyone is surely going to get excited when trying to adopt a dog. Truly a man's best friend, you can rely on your pet dog in giving you company, cuddling up together and some can even guard your house.

"Your Questions on Canine Hip Dysplasia - Answered."

Canine hip dysplasia (CHD) is one of the most frustrating diseases in veterinary medicine today simply because it is so difficult to prevent and treat. CHD is a developmental disease of the bones in which the head of the thigh bone poorly fits the hip socket, causing damage to the cartilage, gradual destruction of the joint, pain and swelling.

"Vaccination and its Important Role in a Dog's Life"

Active immunization is the introduction into the body of killed or satisfied microorganisms or their products for the purpose of stimulating the body's defense mechanism. This concept is also applicable to other species like the dogs.

"Taking care of your dog's teeth and gums"

Clean teeth and gums are very important to the overall health of your dog. Here is some information on the most common dental problems in dogs and ways of treating them.

"How to fight fleas"

The natural way: Vacuum your home frequently and seal vacuum bags before disposing. Wash the bedding of your dog weekly in warm soapy water. This is where fleas usually breed. </

"Weight Problems in Dogs: Is Your Dog Fat?"

Obesity is caused by excessive eating and unhealthy binges just as it is in humans. Often, this situation is triggered by some environmental factors that may lead to more problems when not controlled.

"The Importance of Breeds of Dogs"

Dogs are considered as man's best friend. If one decides to get a dog for a pet, one can choose either a specific breed otherwise known as pure bred or choose one that is a mixed breed or a mutt.

"The Right Breeder"

Dogs are considered as man's best friend. Deciding to own one whether it is big or small involves a lot of responsibility.

"On The Road With Your Dog"

A lot of dogs like go on adventures, which makes travel attractive for them. This is their natural hunting instincts making them want to meet new people and explore new places.

"When your best friend gets lost: Tips in finding your dog"

"The dog is man's best friend," so the saying goes. Dogs have proven to be loving and loyal companions of people. From pit bulls to dachshunds to terriers, dogs are a part of daily life.

"Know Your Friendly Neighborhood Assistance Dogs"

Dogs, aside from being his best friend has also served man in so many useful and varied ways – from shepherding, to cattle rustling, to rescue, and protecting property. It doesn't come as a surprise that they also are able to assist those who cannot get about by themselves.

"Dog Essentials"

People use accessories to accentuate the beauty of a certain thing. There are also times that they buy accessories in order to protect the product against harmful elements in the environment.

"The Profile of a Wannabe Dog Breed"

Some dog lovers spend a great deal of time choosing the right dog breed before they decide to purchase a dog. For them, the dog's breed is one contributing factor to its value.

"Tips in choosing the best dog breeders"

Dog breeders can be found anywhere. However, buying the best-looking puppy in the pet store does not necessarily guarantee that you bought a pet with a top breed.

"Tips on Choosing the Best Dog Tracking System"

Dogs are man's best friend, and this is not an understatement. This is because man and dogs find things that they can both enjoy such as playing, wrestling, running, and even hunting.

"What People Need to Know About Dog Behavior"

As the old adage goes, "Dogs are man's best friend." However, there are times when people just can't understand why their beloved dogs behave in a different manner.

"Dog Bite: Prevent or Deal with It"

"Best Selling Dog Books"

This puppy book starts way back with your breeder and steps you through all the processes to make sure you can raise a puppy the right way. It touches on the subjects of selecting breeders, bonding with puppies, discipline, house training, tricks and simple commands.

"Dogs during Labor"

Breeding dogs is an exciting experience. From the time a proper mate is found to the point that the puppies are born, it is crucial to take careful steps to make this successful.

"The Naming Game"

If "fashionistas" are obsessed with brand names, some dog lovers are hooked on dog breeds. This is because purebred dogs are expensive and belong to the higher level of this particular species.

"Dogs Need Good Food Too – Your Guide to Your Dog's Diet"

Dogs' nutritional needs may differ from ours. What we deem as healthy for us might not be sufficient or appropriate for them. To give your dog the best nutrition available you will have to understand their specific needs and how to address them.

"Preventing your dog from catching diseases"

Like any other pet, dogs, if not properly cared for and maintained, can get diseases. Here are some parasites that cause dog diseases.

"TIPS FOR BUYING DOG FOOD"

It is not enough for dogs to have a full stomach after every meal. Besides a non-sedentary lifestyle, pets need proper nutrition in order to be healthy, happy and their coats soft and glossy.

"Grooming Man's Best friend"

Proper grooming for your dog does not only have aesthetic purposes but also adds to your pet's holistic growth – physical and psychological. Since dog hair can interlace due to dirt and grime in the coat forming mats and tangles, they would need to be groomed to keep proper hygiene. Plus grooming generates more bonding time with your pet, creating a stronger relationship.

"Having Healthy Pups: A Few Tips on Keeping Your Dog Healthy"

The responsibility of a new pet is sometimes overwhelming. One of your new duties as a dog owner is to take care of your pet's health. Here are two pointers for you to follow in taking care of your pet.

"Dog Heroes: All Time Heroes"

Everyday, people witness countless acts of heroism, big and small.

Heroes, too, come in different shapes and sizes, forms and breeds, man and animals alike.

"Basic Principles in a Dog Lovers Club"

There are lots of dog lovers clubs in the US that offer a lot more for both the dog lovers and their dogs. Here are some of them. The American Kennel Club has a dog lovers section called "For the Love of the Purebred Dog".

"What a Dog REALLY Needs"

Loyal, friendly, protective, affectionate, fun. Those qualities have earned dogs a special place in the lives and hearts of humans.

"Five Simple Tips To Get Your Dog Ready For Dog Shows"

Every truly avid dog owner wishes for the chance to show off his pet at the nearest dog show. It is both a way to validate your pride in owning your pet and a chance to see other beautiful dogs in action.

"Dog Sports for Every Breed"

Engaging in sports is not only for humans. It is also well-loved by our best friend, the dog. Dog sports do not only make a dog's life fun, but healthy, as well.

"Dog Supplies Buying Guide"

Just like a baby who needs utmost attention and care, the best supplies for your dog needs some major consideration, too. Here's how you can ensure that your pet gets the best toys, food, and other necessities.

Rules for Non-Pet Owners Who Visit and Like to Complain About Our Pets

1. They live here. You don't.

2. If you don't want their hair on your clothes, stay off the furniture. That's why they call it "fur"niture.

3. I like my pets a lot better than I like most people.

4. To you, they are animals. To me, they are adopted children who are short, hairy and walk on all fours. Although they don't speak clearly, they communicate extremely well.

5. Dogs and cats are better than kids:

They eat less, don't ask for money all the time, are easier to train, usually come when called (this does not apply to cats), NEVER drive your car, don't hang out with drug-using friends, don't smoke or drink, don't worry about having to buy the latest fashions, don't wear your clothes, and don't need a gazillion dollars for college.
